PROCLAMATION

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
September 30, 2023

Whereas the City of Dawson is located on the Traditional Territory of the Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in; and

Whereas the City of Dawson wishes to recognize and commemorate the history and ongoing legacy of residential schools as part of the reconciliation process and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action; and

Whereas the City of Dawson is committed to working with Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in Government and to better understand, recognize, and incorporate the important role they, and their people play in shaping the community; and

Whereas it is important to learn the truth of residential schools, and how events have impacted and continue to impact indigenous families and communities; and

Whereas in a town where a First Nation is a key part of our community, it is important for all of us to reflect on the work we are doing to advance reconciliation in our own lives; and

Whereas the City of Dawson aims to be a community leader in the journey of reconciliation and is committed to making tangible changes and decisions that reflect that work; now

Therefore I, William Kendrick, as Mayor of the City of Dawson, Yukon Territory, do hereby proclaim September 30, 2023, to be:

"National Day for Truth and Reconciliation"

in the City of Dawson, Yukon Territory, and commit this observance to the people of Dawson City.

Mayor William Kendrick
Dated this 29th day of September, 2023.
